supporting bereaved children & young people

“ I didn’t know how to manage my emotions and all my friends started to avoid me. I was sad, angry and scared. ” Tom, age 13

Patronage Programme

Tom's dad died when he was 13

He was becoming distracted at school and there was a noticeable change in his mood. Tom's teacher called Grief Encounter and now his counsellor visits him every week to support him through his dark days, reassuring him that he is not alone.

Tom will need our ongoing support for years to come.

As a Grief Encounter Patron, you will be pledging your commitment to support the 1 child in every UK classroom who is coming to terms with the devastating death of a parent or sibling at a very tender age.

Please sign up today and become part of Tom's grief journey, and the many more children and young people just like him, that we all want to reach and help.

As I was a bereaved child, I founded Grief Encounter to give children and young people the help that I didn't have to move forward positively. Our Patrons enable us to plan with confidence how we will reach those who need us most. We need your help.

Dr Shelley Gilbert MBE, Founder and Lifetime President of Grief Encounter

- We rely entirely on voluntary donations to support the thousands of bereaved children who need us week in and week out.
- Your ongoing financial commitment will enable Grief Encounter to plan and deliver bereavement services with increased confidence, and meet the ever growing demand for these services.
- We promise to keep in touch. This might include invites to Grief Encounter events and information about the impact of your donation, through to opportunities to visit the Grief Encounter clinical centre to meet the team and see first-hand how your support makes a difference.
